United Nations Association Lymington Branch would like to invite all those who could answer the question "Do We Need Plastic?" to come with their families to The Lymington Centre, Saturday 24th November, 1.45pm for refreshments before a presentation by Gill Hickman and some school children, followed by 'Questions & Answers' till 4pm.

Bring and Share Lunch: Sunday 25th November, 12noon for 12.30pm start in the hall - everyone welcome. Call Sarah Salisbury (673847) if you would like more information.

Faith Course: this short course on the basics of the Christian faith will begin on Tuesday 4th December, 2pm in St. Thomas Hall, following which Confirmation would be an option. Further details from the parish office or just come along - all welcome.

Christmas Tree Festival: take part in this popular community event! The Friends committee invite the congregation to suggest any societies or organisations - charitable, educational, sporting, whatever - that they are involved with to consider sponsoring a tree. Decorating a tree with a specific theme to promote and publicise the work of the organisation may raise awareness and encourage new membership. Sponsorship £30, £50 or £100. (£100 trees will be non drop needle-fast Nordman pine). For further information please contact Daphne Johnston or the Parish Office.

Christmas Tree Festival refreshments: our café volunteers are organising refreshments from Friday 7th December to Tuesday 11th December. We do need one more helper for Sunday afternoon, Monday morning and Tuesday afternoon and two for Monday afternoon. We also need cover over the lunchtime period each day from 12.15pm to 1.30pm. Please do contact Jenny (678547 or j.stott@uwclub.net) if you could help out. We hope to have a lot of customers so if you could donate a cake, it would be good to hear from you as well!! All offers much appreciated.

Milk bottle tops: would anyone who buys milk in glass bottles and could spare the metal tops this month towards making "Eco" decorations for a tree, please contact Maureen Harris (674458) or leave in the church office.
