Lymington Parish News: copy for inclusion in the April magazine should be sent to the Editor by Ash Wednesday, 6th March. News of recent events and of forthcoming activities, especially any planned over the Easter period, would be welcome. Any illustrations should ideally be sent as JPEG attachments, with suggested captions and the name of the photographer. Please address any queries to the Editor.

Promenade Concert: Saturday 9th March, 11am in St.Thomas Church. Martin Penrose will be performing music mentioned in the book 'My Northern Adventure' and his wife, Maureen, the book's Editor, will bring a few stories in the book to the audience. Copies will be available to purchase. Free concert with retiring collection.

United Nations Association: Saturday 9th March 2-4pm, Walhampton School, talk by pupils from Priestlands Academy and Walhampton School on "How young people are protecting the environment and saving the planet". Further information, contact Patricia (07525 171716).

Preparation of a new Electoral Roll: this year every parish is required to prepare a new Electoral Roll — both new and existing members need to complete an application form available at the back of the Church or from the parish office. Please return completed forms to the parish office pigeon hole in the narthex by Friday 15th March.

Eco Church – Repair Café: Lymington will have its first Repair Café on Saturday 16th March, 9.30am-12.30pm at Lymington Community Centre, hosted by Transition Lymington. Bring broken items for fixing: eg bikes, clothes, electrical items, jewellery; also IT help desk and advice on phone screens.

Rock Choir Concert (with A Cappella Sounds): Saturday 16th March, 12noon-2pm, St.Thomas church, in aid of 'It's Your Choice'. Tickets £7 adults, £3 children (under 5 free) on the door or call 02380 864231.

Old Testament in a Nutshell: Saturday 23rd March, 10am-4.30pm, St.Luke's Church, Sway. Arrive from 9.15am and bring a packed lunch, drinks provided. Cost £14 including workbook and resource materials (11-16 year old free but no workbook). Call St.Luke's (682358) to book.

Hampshire County Youth Chamber Orchestra and Chamber Choir Concert: Saturday 23rd March, 7.30pm, St.Thomas Church, in aid of Oakhaven. Tickets from Oakhaven or on the door.

Promenade Concert: Saturday 30th March, 11am in St.Thomas Church. Julian and friends with a varied programme of music for viola, piano and wind quintet. Admission free, retiring collection for church funds. All welcome.

Eco Church – Lent challenges: opportunities to put faith into action, to safeguard God's world and help the poorest people who are suffering the most: Christian Aid's Count Your Blessings (download/booklet see <https://www.christianaid.org> or a 'Carbon Fast' see <https://ecochurchsouthwest> for links to resources.

Talking Books: Linda Lee asks if anyone has talking books on CD they have finished with that can be used by residents in a nursing home who struggle to access reading materials. Please leave in an envelope in pigeon hole marked 'L' or in the church office. Many thanks.

Compost: need compost for your garden? Free bags of compost by the compost bays in the churchyard (please return the bags).

Eco Church, Every Can Counts: we now have a box for recycling aluminium – as well as cans, other aluminium is accepted: eg foil, trays, screw tops from wine bottles, tea light holders. It must be clean, so please wash and squash! It will be sold in aid of Pennington Community Allotment.

Prayer App: David Cawte recommends the 'Daily Prayer from the CofE' app which is available free for tablets and phones. It guides you through all the options for morning, evening and night prayer.
