Saturday 27th April, 10am – 1pm: Wilder Lymington event in the Churchyard and Hall. An opportunity to get informed, inspired and equipped to make your outdoor space more nature-friendly. In collaboration with Transition Lymington. For more details see the Facebook event page. We are expecting lots of visitors to our event, coming to find out how to make their green space more nature-friendly. We'll need some friendly faces to welcome people and help them find their way around. If you could help for an hour or two, please contact Rosie Ward.

Messy Church: Helpers needed! Messy Church meets each month in Lymington Infant school and it takes a great team to make this happen. If you might be interested in finding out what we do and joining us please get in touch with Helen Thompson.

The Reverend Canon Michael Burson-Thomas will be appointed as the new priest-in-charge at St Mark's Church, Pennington. The licensing service will take place on Wednesday 24th April.

Are you visiting Winchester Cathedral?

Winchester Cathedral welcomes visitors from parishes around the Diocese through its Parish Pass Scheme. We have six reusable passes that provide free entry to the Cathedral. Please contact the Parish Office for details.

Silverlinks: Silverlinks provides free home visits for older people in the New Forest area to discuss worries or anxieties, help with form filling, income, benefits or budget issues, lack of social contact. For more information email silverlinkslymington@gmail.com

Genealogists' Magazine: There is a copy of the magazine in the office which includes an article by Barry Jolly on the Rooke, Burrard and Kingston families. If you would like to borrow it, please contact the office.
