Sunday 2nd June, 4pm: Solent Music Festival

Sam Jewison - The Great American Songbook

Farewell to Reverend Canon William Cummings:

In the first week of June, it is with much gratitude we say thank you and farewell to Reverend Canon William Cummings. He has been a much-loved part of the community over many years, and we wish him well in his new home.

Thursday 6th June, 8.45pm, Town Quay:

D-Day Commemoration and Lighting of a Beacon to mark the 80th Anniversary with veterans, the vicar, the mayor and other dignitaries in attendance. All welcome.

Thursday 6th – Sunday 9th June: An exhibition of portraits of WW2 veterans by Nel Brooks – STC

Saturday 8th June, 10am: Fire evacuation refresher. All PCC members, sides people and welcome team are requested to come to St Thomas Church at 10am for fire safety training.

Saturday 8th June: There will be a Belltower Open Day, open to the public and a chance to explore the Belltower and try your hand at bellringing.

Change in Service Times: From 28th July, the 9.15am service will move to its new time of 10am and Life & Soul will be retired. For more details see the vicar's letter.

Christian Aid Event: Thank you to everyone who supported last Saturday by preparing, baking, manning the stall, or packing-away at last Saturday's 2-hour event.

We were delighted to be supported on the day by the Mayor, Cllr Jack Davies. We raised £500 which will be added to the Christian-Aid envelopes total to be announced next week.

Friday 21st June: The Mission to Seafarers - Friday Evening Harbour Cruise - Southampton Water.

Help support the work of the Mission to Seafarers and enjoy one of the longest nights of the year onboard the m/v 'Ocean Scene' (Blue Funnel Cruises)! A Fish and Chip Dinner is included in the price of the ticket. Additional information and tickets (£39.99) available here:
