Thank you, Churchwardens: On Thursday evening our Churchwardens Chris Stroud and Daphne Johnston attended the Archdeacon's Visitation Service at Romsey Abbey where they were formally admitted to the office they hold. Churchwardens are officers of the bishop and play a crucial part in the life of a parish. In co-operation with the parish priest, they are responsible for church buildings and property; good governance and worship; and many other small and surprising things that come with maintaining a heritage building and much-loved parish church. Thank you, Chris and Daphne, for all that you do!
